 Features an engineered wood center panel for a superior finish, excluding Tucson®
